

If I go down to the woods today...

Music – linked with learning songs for Harvest and Christmas
Speaking, singing, chanting, loud, quiet, soft, move, rhythm, beat, mood, feelings volume, song,

DT – Christmas projects: food and decorations
Mix, recipe, weigh, ingredients, measure, combine, make, teamwork, bowl, spoon

RE –
Christmas, Jesus, Nangle, shepherd, gold, frankincense, myrrh, wise men, star, stable, God, Mary, Joseph, celebrate, friend, caring

Text
Into the Woods by Anthony Browne
Little Red Riding Hood
Non-fiction animals books

Thoughtbox -
Emotions, feelings, proud, share, confidence, individual, identity, special, different, unique, like, dislike, best, try, talents, proud, friend, respect, share, listen

Big Questions

- What are woods like?
- Who lives in the woods?

Literacy
Words, sounds, full stops, capital letters, sentences, spaces, complete, describe, explain, capital letter

Intent
For children to understand the habitat of the woods and the types of animals that might live there

Geography
Country, map, British, England, Reading, habitat, town, woods, environments, cold, hot, desert, jungle, mountains, ice, polar regions, weather, climate,

Computing –
Listen, follow, instructions, together, teamwork, turns, next, step, recipe, video, computer, copy, paste

PE
Run, jump, skip, slide, move, fast, slow, speed, change directions, names of body parts, breathing, exercise, heartbeat, happy, sad, active, peaceful calm

Maths
Add, plus, and, altogether, equal, more less, fewer, subtract, take away, minus, greater, smaller, left, how many, 2D, 3D, shapes,

Art
Primary, secondary, colours, mix, combine, paint, brush, hold, strokes, materials, patterns,

Science
names of the main human body parts, living, dead alive, Autumn, Winter, seasons, cyclical, human, animal, mammal, bird, fish, reptile, amphibian, breathe, skin, fur, feathers, milk, compare, habitat